

Dandino's

Supper Club

Dandino's Supper Club has been a premier and iconic dining spot in Goshen since 1965. Michael Dandino was the founder of Dandino's Supper Club. Prior to that it was Stouder's Market and after that, Stouder's Tavern. In 1976 it was purchased by Bob Allberry. Bob built Dandino's Supper Club to be the dining prominence in Goshen. This is where business men routinely gathered at the bar late afternoons to discuss community news. Evenings, Dandino's was the spot to go for dinner with family, friends or business associates. In 2017, Kerm Troyer purchased the restaurant from Bob. Kerm is bringing back the "Supper Club" where all are welcome. And continue to serve the community with a friendly atmosphere, outstanding service, and the best food in the area. As you wait for a table, cozy up to the bar for some banter and a beverage with fellow guests. We hope you appreciate the theme throughout the restaurant of popular cars, entertainers, advertisements and room names, all from the Supper Club era 1930's – 1960's. Don't forget to enjoy your after dinner Old Fashioned, Grasshopper or Irish Cream.

Thank you for dining with us, we trust your experience was relaxing and enjoyable!
